

STARK CHOICES IN THE UAW 2023 RUN-OFF

UAW President's Job (short list)	Ray Curry	Shawn Fain
Bargaining	As a servicing representative in Region 8 (2004-2010), Region 8 Assistant Director (2010-2014), Region 8 Director (2014-2018), International Union Secretary-Treasurer (2018-2021) and International Union President (2021-present), has led successful bargaining (local and national agreements) across multiple sectors and companies.	Bargaining committee of UAW Local 1166 and FCA national negotiating team member in 2009 and 2011. On staff in UAW National Chrysler-FCA-Stellantis Department since 2012 (under VPs Holiefield, Jewell and Estrada); currently Administrative Assistant over Training Center.
Standing Committees	As Region 8 Director, prioritized the role of standing committees and councils in the region as a way to build solidarity in the ranks.
Political Action	A staunch fighter for UAW members in Washington, DC, and state capitals, has been at the table as national policy that affects UAW members is crafted to ensure that labor standards remain high and that our active and retired members' interests are protected.
Building Coalitions	As an International Officer since 2018, worked in partnership with civil rights and progressive organizations as well as other unions to help build a just society that respects worker rights.
Retirees	As Director of Region 8, led the Region with the largest UAW retiree population outside of Michigan and supported their Area Councils; improved retiree healthcare as member of the UAW Retiree Medical Benefits Trust (along with VP Chuck Browning).
